TRENCHES TAKEN BY USE OF MINES

French in Champagne and British Near Ypres Blow Up Positions.

DENIALS BY GERMANY

Russian Review Asserts Almost Complete Control of Carpathian Mountain Chain.

Berlin, April 19 (Via wireless through Sayeville, L. I.).—The British attempt to destroy, through mining operations the strong German positions southeast of Ypres has failed, the war office today announced. The British were repulsed with heavy loss. The official statement said:

"The English, after some blasting, last night rushed the German position on the heights southeast of Ypres. They were at once repulsed in a counterattack. The fighting here continues.

"In the Champagne, the French have blasted a trench in the position taken on April 16 by the Germans between the Meuse and the Moselle.

"Artillery duels are in progress in the Vosges.

"Southwest of Stossweiser, the Germans took the French positions, Southwest of Metzeral, the Germans carried the outposts, but fell back before a superior force of the enemy.

"The situation on the eastern front is unchanged."

Paris, April 19—The following official statement was issued last night by the French War office:

"The day was relatively calm, being marked mainly by artillery actions and local infantry engagements. In the valley of the Aisne, at the Bois de St. Mord, the enemy attacked ourtrenches at the close of the afternoon, but was promptly stopped by our artillery, while a bayonet charge inflicted severe losses on the enemy.

"In Champagne, to the northwest of Perthes, the Germans were compelled to evacuate an excavation which they had been occupying close to our lines. By the explosion of mines, followed by an attack, we captured 60 meters of enemy trenches.

"In the Woevre there was only cannonading.

"In Lorraine the Germans delivered in the environs of the forest of Parroy, several minor attacks with weak effectives, particularly near Bures, Mouracourt, Embermenil and St. Martin, but were easily repulsed.

"In Alsace the Germans thrice attacked, without success, our trenches on Little Reich Ackerkopf. We on our part made fresh progress in the region of Schnepfen-Riethkopf.

"One of our aeroplanes, after a brilliant pursuit, brought down a German aeroplane, which fell within the enemy's lines in Belgium between Langemarch and Passchendaele."

Another official statement regarding the progress of the fighting issued yesterday by the War Office said:

"In the Vosges a German attack, prepared for by a violent bombardment and carried out by a battalion against our positions northwest of Orbey, Alsace (14 iles northwest of Colmar,) was repulsed. The Germans Mord, the enemy attacked out trenches and we made about 40 prisoners.

"A Belgian aeroplane brought down a German aeroplane near Roulers. In the same region one of our small squadrons successfully bombarded an aviation ground."

Berlin, April 19—The statement issued yesterday by army headquarters is as follows:

"In the western theatre, the English, after having caused several explosions by means of mines, penetrated last night into our positions in the hills close to the northern bank of the canal southeast of Ypres, but were repulsed immediately by a counter attack, except from three of the craters they occupied. The fighting continues.

"In the Champagne the French blew up a trench next to a position we captured the day before yesterday, but without gaining any advantage.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle there have been only artillery battles.

"In the Vosges we took possession of an advanced French position on hills southwest of Stossweier.

"Southwest of Metzeril our advanced posts were withdrawn toward their points of support before a superior enemy force.

"In the eastern theatre, the situation remains unchanged."

NEWS OF THE DAY

Commander Noble Irwin, of the cruiser New Orleans, reported to the Navy Department yesterday that he had investigated the Japanese naval activity in Turtle Bay, Lower California, and found no indications of other than salvage work on the stranded cruiser Asama.

With smiling countenances and with Mayor Donn M. Roberts leading, the fifteen prisoners convicted in the Terre Haute, Ind., election conspiracy case and sentenced to the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., by Judge Anderson arrived at Leavenworth this morning.

As a result of a railroad accident Swiss customs officers discovered Saturday that a sealed car marked "vegetables," shipped from Genoa to Germany, was loaded with maxim guns. The artillery was sequestered. Seven cars consigned by an Italian firm to Frankfort were seized at Como, when it was found they contained sulphur, copper and other contraband. This merchandise also was confiscated.

Advices from Cairo state that a mutiny among the Australian troops has been caused by the complaint that they, like the Indians, always are sent to the first fighting lines, while the English troops are held back. A large number of Indians have deserted to the Turks.

A strong attack on the idea of a hell of fire and brimstone, as a permanent place of abode, after death, for earthly sinners, was delivered yesterday morning by the Rev. Dr. C. Everett Granger, of Gunton-Temple Memorial Presbyterian Church, Washington.

Within a short distance of a dozen rowboats and canoes filled with men and women; many of the men being expert swimmers, a canoe occupied by Lawrence Ricker, 29 years old, of 709 Seventh street, Washington, employed by the Wells-Fargo Express Company, and George G. Cooper, of 607 K street northeast, was overturned yesterday, throwing the two men into the river near Chain Bridge. Ricker, who could swim, was drowned.

Action to try to stop religious teachings in the public schools of the District of Columbia, is to be taken by the Washington Secular League, it was decided yesterday at a meeting in Pythian Temple. The matter was brought up after a speech by Julian Pierce, member of the league, in which he said the teachings of religions as taught by theologians was menacing the pupils by teaching them religious superstition. The taxing of church property was also advocated by the speaker, as he said they were utilizing such things as water and property rights paid for by others.

The British, as an offset to their success in destroying a Turkish torpedo boat which attacked the transport Manitou off Chios Saturday, lost the submarine E-15, which while carrying out a difficult reconnaisance in the Dardanelles mine field, ran aground on Kephez point, the crew being made prisoners.

According to reliable information, Vienna and Budapest have been strongly fortified. On the left bank of the Danube Vienna has been protected by long lines of trenches, barricades and barbed-wire entanglements. The sum of $14,000,000 has been spent on the fortifications. The price of food has arisen enormously. Large numbers of troops are being sent to the Carpathians. Five army corps from Von Hindenburg's army are expected next week.

The Giornale d'Italia of Rome says Emperor Francis Joseph and Pope Benedict have exchanged autograph letters through special couriers, the contents of which are kept strictly secret.

ROOSEVELT IS SUED FOR $50,000

Machine Politics Keynote of Case Which Has Begun Today.

CHARGED WITH LIBEL

Defendant Claims He Was Justifiable and Will Attempt to Prove Utterances Against Barnes.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 19.—Machine politics—"bossism"—was the keynote of the trial, begun here today, of William Barnes' suit against former President Theodore Roosevelt, for $50,000 damages for alleged libel.

Barnes asks the $50,000 reputation balm for being publicly named by former President as an alleged partner with "Boss" Charley Murphy, of Tammany Hall," in an alliance between crooked business and crooked politics."

Colonel Roosevlt's defense is justification. He proposes to prove his charges.

Formerly friends, but now bitter foes, Barnes and Roosevelt both promised merciless disclosures of past political machinations, in Albany county, New York State, and even the nation.

Under subpoena, the political hierarchy of State and nation assembled here today.

Republican leader in New York State for years, member of the State committee since 1892, its chairman for three years, and national committeeman for New York state, Barnes was prepared to tear the veil from much secret political history.

Colonel Roosevelt, friend and coworker of Barnes in highest Republican councils of the State and nation—as New York's governor and later the nation's Chief Executive—promised revelations of Barnes' alleged "bossism,' and alleged working agreement with the Democrats.

Barnes' counsel insisted today that the issue is not political, but personal—an attempt to defame and injure his good name. Rosevelt's lawyers were equally as insistent that promised proof of Barnes' alleged copartnership with "Boss" Murphy in shaping legislation and in other ways would absolve him of the charge of the libel.

Friends of both declared that the question of money damages was subordinate. Both are wealthy. Barnes publisher of the Albany Journal, is rated as a millionaire. A verdict of 1 cent or nominal damages in favor of either will spell popular victory, it is generally regarded.

The Supreme Court, Justices Holmes And Hughes Dissenting, Rejects Appeal.

Washington, April 19.—Leo M. Frank, under death sentence for the murder of Mary Phagan, an Atlanta factory girl, lost another step in his fight for life in the Supreme Court of the United States today.

RUSSIAN PROGRAM

Confident That Germany Is Being Worn Down

Rome, April 19—The Sunday Messagero publishes a long interview had in Petrograd by its correspondent with Prof. Paul N. Milukoff, leader of the constitutionalists democratic party in the Russian duma, Prof. Milukoff said Russia was ready to fight for one year or two years if necessary. The momentary successes of the Germans did not disturb Russia's patience, as the people knew that this was a war of resistance and wearing down, and that time was the best ally of Russia.

The Russian program, Prof. Milukoff continued, was liberty in the Black Sea, with the possession of the straits leading from it, evidently implying taht Russia purposed to occupy Constantinople in the event of the success of the allies.

A written agreement in this sense Prof. Milukoff said, already had been concluded between Great Britain, France and Russia. He was not sure whether this agreement included the islands of Tenedos and Imbros, which according to the conference of London in 1913, it was decided should belong to the power in possession of the straits.

Thus, he said, Serbia would have Bosnia and Herzegovina with the Dalmatian coast south of the Narenta River. Croatia would be independent with the Dalmatia coast north of the Narenta River and Bohemia also independent, while old Roumanian territory would be added to Roumania.

Galicia, M. Milukoff said, would be annexed by Russia to form part of Poland, which would become autonomous without discussion at the peace conference, because, he declared, the Polish question was Russia's internal question.

The Burgarians, according to M. Milukoff, had asked in addition for the district of Uskup and Kumanovo. The agreement between Bulgaria and Roumania, he said, was perfected on the basis of the protocol signed in Petrograd under which Roumania will return to Bulgaria the territory taken after the second Balkan war, while because she had remained neutral, the triple entente already guaranteed Bulgaria that they would reconquer Adrianople and extend her frontier to the Enos-Midia line.

If Italy joins the allies, M Milukoff said she would have, if the allies were victorious Trent, Trieste, Pola and a share in Asia Minor.

FIRST PEACE PARLEY

French, British and Turkish Diplomats Gathered in Rome to Discuss Austria's Plight.

Rome, April 19—The first peace conference of the war has just been concluded here. How much was accomplished, if anything, cannot now be stated such elaborate measures to preserve secrecy have been adopted that it is doubtful even if this letter will get through.

The great significant fact is that Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, came to Rome to take part in this peace conference arriving here on April 6; that Gen. Pau, the distinguished French commander, who has been making a triumphal tour in Russia and the Balkan countries, arrived here April 8 to attend the meeting on behalf of France and that while here these two representatives of the allies met three prominent Austro-Hungarian statesmen and an important delegation from Russia.

At this time two very prominent Turks, Carasso Effendi and Midhat Chucry Bey, made it convenent to be here. These same Turkish leaders took a prominent part in the preliminary negotiations for peace in the Turko-Italian war.

Sir Edward Grey returned to London April 12. Gen. Pau arrived in Paris on the same day. Neither in France nor England has any word been allowed to leak out concerning the results of the conference in Rome.

NEW IMPETUS IN RIGGS BANK CASE

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo Expects to Return This Week.

WANTS TO TAKE HAND

Rumors Still Persist That Fight May Broaden Out to Include Other Financial Interests.

Washington April 19.—New impetus to the war between the Riggs National Bank officials and the foremost officials of the Treasury Department is expected to be given this week by the return of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo to his desk, after his long siege of illness.

It is said that McAdoo is anxious to take a guiding hand in the Treasury side of the fight with the bank officials.

This week will be marked, it is expected, chiefly by energetic preparations on the part of counsel for McAdoo and Comptroller of the Treasury Williams for the begining of the battle in the courts on May 12.

Williams, it is intimated, has set on foot inquiries to find out how far the bank officials are amenable to a counter-attack, and it is known that investigations are running in various channels and there are well founded reports that several special agents are employed.

Rumors persist that the fight may broaden out to include other financial interests.

It grows in probability that the whole controversy will be aired in Congress. It is fully expected that Administration leaders, if they follow their present bent of mind, will try another "money trust" investigation, which will draw in those big financial powers with which the Administration has been in conflict for many months. These powers include by no means all of Wall street, or what is vaguely known as Wall Street, but certain of its great houses and factors. It is not unlikely another "money trust" crusade will be attempted in Congress with a view to the effect in the 1916 campaign.

It is not entirely clear who will lead the Treasury fight in the District Supreme Court. While one report is that Assistant Attorney General Warren will head the aray of counsel, it is believed that Special Counsel Brandeis will be in charge

KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Machine Strikes Soft Spot And is Overturned.

Egg Harbor City, N. J., April 19.—Benjamin L. Stratt was killed and his business partner, Meyer Myerson, of Philadelphia, was badly hurt when a skidding automobile overturned on the White Horse pike, near Germania, yesterday afternoon. The wives of the two men escaped serious injury, but Mrs. Stratt had to be given medical attention, as she suffered complete prostration. Mr. Stratt lived at No. 689 South Fifty-second street, and leaves six children. He and Mrs. Myerson were in business as manufacturers of muslin underwear at No. 50 North Third Street.

In the new car of Harry M. Gosch, of No. 1421 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, the partners and their wives were returning from a trip to Atlantic City. It is said that Gosch endeavored to turn out and pass a car moving in the same direction, when the wheels struck a soft spot in the road, the car skidded, and suddenly overturned completely, hurling all the occupants from their seats.

Mr. Stratt was pinioned under the car and several automobilists who stopped aided in removing it. He was unconscious when taken out and was hurried to the office of Dr. Boysen here, but the physician said he was dead. Mr. Myerson, who was also brought to the doctor's office, suffered concussion of the brain, severe injuries of the head and bad cut of the eyes, owing to the breaking of his glasses.

KAISER WOULD EMBROIL U. S.

Sailor Says Intervention of This Country Would Speed Peace

New York, April 19—Germany has set out to involve the United States in the European war, on one side or the other in order to bring hostilities to a speedy conclusion according to the opinion expressed by Capt. T. Donald Tod, skipper of George J. Gould's yacht, the Atlanta who arrived here on the liner St. Paul from Liverpool.

"The Kaiser is anxious for the United States to come out either for or against him" said Capt. Tod, "Should the United States side with the allies the Kaiser would be prepared to assume a 'what's the use we can't fight the whole world' attitude while on the other hand, if we should aid Germany, the allies would be cut off from all ammunition supplies from this side, which would weaken them trenmedously."

The war has not yet really begun according to Copt. Tod. Like Kitchener he believes that the real fighting is due to start next month or a little later.

ANNUAL CONTEST IN D. A. R. CONVENTION

Mrs. William Cummings Story Welcomes Delegates This Morning

CREDENTIALS FIGHT.

Advocates of Mrs. Guernsey Are Astir Early in Their Campaign Against Administration.

Washington, April 19—Daughters of the American Revolution from every State in the Union and from the American possessions were present when the twenty-fourth continental congress of the national society, D. A. R. opened this morning at 10 o'clock in Memorial Continental Hall, All heads bowed in silent prayer as Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, the chaplain general, urged unanimity among the delegates for the good of the organization.

With the brief welcome address of President General Mrs. William Cumming Story, however, the contests that have been in the minds of the delegates for some time came to the surfaces, and the first struggle of the congress was expected to follow the report of the committee on credentials to be given by Miss Hilda Fletcher, chairman. A number of contest between delegates for the privilege of sitting in the congress were before the credentials committee, and the decision of the committee in several cases is to be appealed to the floor of the congress.

The morning program included roll call and a brief report of the committee on program and announcements of special meetings during the week.

The afternoon program will open at 2:30 o'clock with a program by the Marine Band, after which President Wilson will extend a welcome to the Daughters, and address will be given by Ambassador J J. Jusserand, John Barrett, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, and Rogers Clark Ballard Thurston. This evening, between 5 and 7 o'clock a reception will be tendered Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, one of the candidates for president-general at the New Willard. At 9 o'clock the reception of the president-general, Mrs. William Cumming Story, will begin in Memorial Continental Hall. Music will be furnished by the Marine Band at the evening reception.

While balloting on the candidates for officers of the national society will not commence until Wednesday morning, the contest between Mrs. Story and Mrs. Guernsey already is at white heat. A poll of the delegates present has been made and each candidate claims her election.

MOVE ON SERBIA.

One Hundred Thousand Germans Among Troops on Frontier.

Sofia, April 19.—Despite the need of troops to oppose the Russians, who are endeavoring to force the Carpathian passages, reports received today say that all train traffic on the Austro-Hungarian state railway has again been stopped, because of troop movements.

This is declared to mean that von Goltz has carried the day, and that another attempt to capture Serbia is to commence. It is stated that among the troops headed for the Serbian frontier are 100,000 Germans.

MARGARIN FROM SUNFLOWERS.

Germans Make Butter Substitute From Seed, London Hears.

London, April 19.—The production of margarin from sunflowers is the latest device attributed to the German Government to meet the expected scarcity of butter, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Amsterdam.

The message says the Prussian Ministry of Railroads has ordered all station masters to plant sunflowers in every bit of available ground around the depots.

Sunflowers, it is claimed, yield an oil that can be used in the manufacture of substitutes for butter.

LESS SALOONS THIS YEAR

Number in This City Has Steadily Decreased During Past Few Years.

Alexandria will in all probability have four or five less saloons after the first of May when the present licenses expire. Nevell S. Greenaway, clerk of the courts, is now receiving applications for licenses, and saloon keepers will have until the last of this month to file their applications with him when they will be turned over to Louis C. Barley, Judge of the Corporation Court. One large wholesale firm and several retail firms have already announced that they will close their business at the end of the present month

There are at present 42 places of business in Alexandria where liquor is sold. The number has been steadily decreasing for the past seven or eight years. The state-wide prohibition bill will go in effect November 1st, 1916, and the local liquor dealers are said to be preparing to close their places of business at that time.

TO CHANGE VOTING PLACE.

Another Assembly Point Must be Secured for Suffragans of Third Ward.

Owing to certain alterations which have recently been been made in the building owned and occupied by Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, that place, it is said, will not be used hereafter as a voting place for Third warders. For many years the old courthouse on north Columbus street was used for this purpose, but since that structure was razed ballots have been cast on the first floor of the lodge building.

The work of rearranging the wards of the city since the acquisition of much outlying territory is causing considerable speculation. As has been stated in the Gazette, some are inclined to the belief that another ward should be added to the city, and that it embrace all the annexed territory; others, however, see no reason for this, but suggest that new territory be added to the present four wards of the city, the latter urging that less than one hundred names will be added to the electorate by the new era

MISS BOWLING ELECTED.

Succeeds Miss Simmons as Superintendent of Alexandria Hospital.

Miss Elton V. Bowling has been elected superintendent of the Alexandria Hospital to succeed Miss Naomi A. Simmons, who resigned. The election was made Saturday by the lady board of managers, and will be confirmed by the board of trustees. Miss Bowling is a graduate of the Alexandria Hospital and for some time was superintendent of the hospital at Roanoke, Va.

It is very gratifying to the public to know that so capable and popular a nurse as Miss Bolling has been appointed to succeed Miss Simmons as superintendent of the Alexandria Hospital. It was with regret that Miss Simmons's resignation was accepted as she has prover a most capable and beloved matron in her excellent service to the hospital for the past five years.

ROLLERCOASTER BURNS.

Fire at Luna Park This Afternoon Causes Considerable Excitement.

Shortly after noon today the rollercoaster at Luna Park, Four-mile run station of the Washington-Virginia Railway, was found to be burning. The wind was blowing fresh from the west, and it was feared that the flames would be wafted to the wooden buildings within the enclosure. A chemical engine was brought into requisition, and after considerable difficulty the fire were confined to the structure in which it originated.

The fire is supposed to have been started by burning brush on the northwest of the park.

All the buildings in this resort are wooden, and while the fire was raging there was considerable excitement, not only in the park, but in the entire neighborhood. The power house of the electric railway is a few yards east of the park, and many cars are always at the place. Had the flames spread across the tracks a serious conflagration would have followed.

Deceased Was Father of Mrs. C. Keith Carlin, of Alexandria.

Charles E. Potts, until two years ago treasurer of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, when he retired on account of failing health, died in his home at Ashland this morning at 12:15 o'clock. He was in the 63rd year of his age.

Mr. Potts was born in Petersburg, and, after his school days, entered the railroad business, in which he spent all his years until his physical condition forbade further effort. He was beloved of all who were associated with him, and, being a man of kindly disposition made many friends who knew him outside his working hours.

Mr. Potts's first service was with the old Richmond and Danville Railway, which afterwards became the Southern Railway Company. Afterwards he became associated with the Richmond and Alleghany Railway, and when that road was merged with the Chesapeake and Ohio, he became treasurer of the latter company, and remained with it until his retirement.

He was married to Miss Annie Macon Johnston, daughter of Peyton Johnston, of Richmond, by whom he is survived. He leaves also one son, Joseph Potts, of Amsterdam, N. Y., three daughters, Mrs. C. Keith Carlin, of Alexandria; Mrs. James Hunter, of Richmond, and Miss Virginia Potts, and by two brothers, John D. Potts, of Richmond, and R. B. Potts, of North Carolina.

The funeral will take place at Ashland at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Two of the bullets pierced the man's coat. Four negroes who were engaged in the game were each fined $2.50.

PRUSSIANS MOWED DOWN

Advanced Upon French While Masquerading as Germans.

Paris, April 19— [illegible] by a regiment of French infantry over a network of strongly [illegible]ed trenches which resulted in the [illegible] in of 1,000 yards at Bois Jaune Brules, near Mesnil-le-Hurlus, is described by an eyewitness in an official statement issued by the war office. The French attack was prepared by sappers, who dug into the first line of trenches and anihilated the occupants with hand grenades.

"The Germans, surprised, were unable to defend their front" says the eyewitness, "and the French advance guard was installed in the first line. A general attack followed immediately. The fighting was hand to hand and few shots were fired. The Germans scarcely were able to utilize their hand grenades and were obliged to retire precipitately. The French infantry next captured a strong redoubt in the center of the woods.

"The Third regiment of the Prussian guard offered a stubborn resistance trying to deceive the French by sending forward troops dressed in the woolen cloaks of Moroccan riflemen taken from the dead.

"This ruse was discovered after a brief interval. Machine guns which were brought up mowed down line after line of the advancing Prussians until the ground was strewn with bodies.

"More than a third of the soldiers in this regiment of the guard were killed. The French losses were 300 killed, including several officers"

Kent and Dr. Thomas Walker Page, of the University.

No arrests have been made.

DIVORCE SUIT PROBABLE.

Mr. And Mrs. W. F. McCombs Said to Have Separated.

New York, April 19.—The New York American prints the following from its Washington correspondent:

Society circles in Washington were shocked when it became known that William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Mrs. McCombs had separated. The belief among close friends of the couple is that Mrs. McCombs soon will bring action for divorce.

Mrs. McCombs has spent much time the last several months, at the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams, in Washington. Recently she has been staying at the country estate of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter, in McLean, Va. Mrs. Leiter and Mrs. McCombs are sisters.

WARNED AGAINST KISSING.

Cerebro-Spinal Fever in England Contracted by Osculation.

Cerebro-spinal fever, popularly known as spotted fever, is so prevalent in the parts of England given over to soldiers' training camps that the local government board has issued a memorandum of precautionary measures in which persons subjected to exposure are advised against kissing. The disease, says the memorandum, is always likely to attack people in a low state of health, especially in overcrowded districts, and kissing is dangerous because the first place the germs attack is the back of the throat.

"The greatest attention should be paid to this point," it says, "because contrary to the old belief that spotted fever is not infectious, it is now largely believed to be transmitted in this manner."

BALL FRACTURES BOY'S SKULL.

Ashland Youth Has Clot of Blood Removed From Brain in Richmond Hospital.

Richmond, April 19.—Jack Howison 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Howison, of Ashland, Va., is in a critical condition at St. Luke's Hospital as the result of being hit on the head by a batted baseball during a game which took place at Ashland Saturday afternoon between the high school team of that town and one from Glen Allen. Howison sustained a fractured skull, and was operated upon at St. Luke's Hospital last night by Drs. Stuart McGuire and Beverly Tucker, and a large blood clot removed from his brain.

Although probably fatally injured, it was not realized at the time that he was seriously hurt. Young Howison was knocked down by the force of the ball which was driven in his direction with terrific force. The sound of the impact was heard all over the ball field.

People in the grandstand and players on both teams rushed to where young Howison lay, but he soon arose apparently having escaped injury. He was taken out of the game, and, feeling weak, he started home. He had hardly gotten from the field before he fell, unable to continue his way. Dr. Ray was summoned and the physician took the boy home.

A more careful examination of his injuries made after he reached his home, disclosed the fact that young Howison had sustained a fractured skull. He was at once placed aboard the electric car for Richmond, and brought on here to St. Luke's Hospital.

Richomnd, April 19.—Robert Jackson Howison, ten year old son of J. F. Howison, of Ashland, died in St. Luke's Hospital early yesterday morning as the result of an injury received while playing in a baseball game in Ashland on Saturday afternoon.

INDIGNANT OVER HIS REMOVAL

Storm of Protest Against Dismissal of Deputy Revenue Collector Southward

Richmond, April 19—Announcement of the removal of E. P. Southward as division deputy collector of the Internal Revenue Department, Second Virginia District, by Collector R. C. L. Moncure, effective on May 1st has aroused a storm of protest among the tobacco interests of this city. Deputy Southward was notified by Collector Moncure several days ago that he would be removed from his office, which his friends assert, he has capably filled for eighteen years. It was said that Mr. Southward's removal as division deputy would not necessarily mean his dismissal from the service.

Politics and personal feeling on the part of a person or persons higher up in the service are said to be responsible for the forthcoming change.

William T. Reed, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and president of the Larus Brothers Company Clyde W. Saunders, F. M. Collier, manager of the Falk Tobacco Company; William T. Dabney business manager of the Chamber of Commerce and other well known citizens have not only taken cognizance of the affair, but have taken steps in a strong effort to have Mr. Southward retained as division deputy. Letters of protest, it is learned have been addressed to Senator Martin and Swanson and Congressman Montague asking them in to intercede in behalf of Mr. Southward with the Treasury Department.

Mr. Southward yesterday said that he was not prepared to make a statement, but would do so at the proper time.

As far as can be learned officials at the department at Washington are not aware of the contemplated change in the Richmond office.

ANOTHER ANNIVERSARY.

The nineteenth day of April, 1861, was a notable day for people of Baltimore. The Sixth Massachusetts Regiment had arrived in that city on their way to Washington, responding to the call for seventy-five thousand men to crush the newly-born Southern Confederacy. Maryland abounded in southern sympathizers, and a large percentage of the people of the monumental city were averse to coertion on the part of the federal government. On that memorable day some of the principal streets of the city were thronged with people, many of whom were muttering against troops hostile to the south marching through Baltimore. Jeers and insults resulted in the discharge of bricks and cobblestones at the soldiers. The latter were held in check as far as possible by their officers until it was finally deemed necessary to issue the terrible order to fire. The command was obeyed with readiness by the exasperated soldiers, and several Baltimoreans fell, some dead and others injured. The battle between soldiers and civilians was necessarily short-lived, stones not being sufficient to answer bullets or bayonets, and the Massachusetts regiment marched through the streets and boarded a train for Washington. Bricks were hurled at the cars as they passed on and the soldiers returned the attacks with their muskets.

Many sad scenes marked that eventful day. As is usual, innocent bystanders were the greatest sufferers, and children were killed who had unfortunately allowed their curiosity to draw them into the danger zone.

Alexandria at that time was virtually isolated from most of the world. The Confederate flag was floating here and there and wearers of the gray were on guard duty. The Gazette obtained its news from Washington by "Pony Express." A brother of James E. Legg ,one of our old citizens, made a trip to Washington every night in a buggy drawn by a white horse. He was compelled to run the blockade and often incurred danger. At the close of the memorable nineteenth day of April the Gazette secured a copy of an extra issued by the Baltimore Sun, which the Gazette reproduced in an extra that night.

General Winfield Scott supposed that seventy-five thousand three-months men would be amply sufficient to end the trouble between the North and the South. He died the year after the war. The hero of the Mexican war realized that he was as unable to peer into the future as others, as the war had only about commenced when the three-months men were discharged.

JAPANESE PHANTOM PASSES AWAY

Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced last night on the receipt of official reports that there was no basis for the allegations that Japan has established a naval base or intended to establish such a base or occupy any territory at Turtle Bay, Lower California.

Commander Noble Irwin of the cruiser New Orleans, reported to the Navy Department that he had investigated the Japanese naval activity in Turtle Bay, Lower California, and found no indications of other than salvage work on the stranded cruiser Asama.

The Japanese officers told commander Irwin that they expected to have the Asama floated about the first of next month. The repair ship sent from Japan arrived there the latter part of last month.

The Japanese Embassy issued a statement declaring the operations were solely for salvage purposes and denying that there was any intention of establishing a naval base, and later General Canto, military governor of Lower California, telegraphed the Villa authorities that the Japanese activities were limited to salving the Asama.

WAR BRINGS SOCIABILITY.

A correspondent writing from London says:

"War is making the British public sociable. Travelers who in times of peace would occupy the same compartments for hours at a time without exchanging a word now start conversations without an introduction. This sudden breaking loose from the Victorian spirit of reserve and aloofness has caused the Times to comment, editorially, on the change, which it calls one of the minor results of the war. He first confesses:

"Most of us in normal circumstances go on a railway journey as we go to a barber's, with a prayer for silence in our hearts, and at the first sign of loquacity we take refuge behind a rampart of newspaper."

But now he finds it "ludicrously solemn" to sit mutely for hours, looking straight through the fellow-creature opposite and concludes in behalf of friendly intercourse between passengers:

'If we only have the honesty to admit it to ourselves, the sense of having done our duty in being friendly and pleasant gives a comfortable little glow at the heart which more than compensates for an occasional bad half hour."

MINISTER ASSAILS JUSTICE

School Teacher Had Been Fined for Cruel Treatment of a Pupil

Norfolk, Va., April 19—Stating that he believed in corporal punishment and that he thought it necessary to preserve discipline in the schools, but that it should not be made unduly severe, Justice Arnold at the Juveniel session of the Police Court Saturday afternoon, imposed a fine of $5 and costs upon Principal Willis Hutchings of James Madison public school at Lambert's Point on a charge of assault upon Henry Dickens, a pupil.

Dickens, who is thirteen years old, came into court with bandages upon his legs, and a physician who attended the youth testified that when he was called immediately after the thrashing that blood was running from ten cuts. The boy exhibited numerous bruises to the court. The whipping occurred several days ago and professor Hutchings was arrested on a warrant sworn out by H. N. Dickens, a policeman, father of the boy.

According to the testimony young Dickens and another pupil engaged in a tussle in the schoolroom for which conduct the former was reported to the principal, who ordered him whipped. The young lady who had made the report attempted to carry out the orders but was unable to do so. The teacher then held Dickens, it was alleged, while Principal Hutchings attempted to administer the punishment. At this point the boy drew a knife, and then the Principal undertook to thrash him alone. Two long switches were placed in evidence as having been used in the whipping. They had been broken and torn at the ends and the bark stripped off.

Immediately after the trial a minister of a Lambert's Point church severely criticised Justice Arnold for his decision.

"You are the ruination of the Lambert's Point school," he said pointing to the magistrate, who was in the midst of another case at that time.

"I take your criticism of my judicial acts just as kindly as you would my questioning the sincerity of your religion." replied Justice Arnold.

GUARD KRONPRINZ WILLIAM.

Newport News, Va., April 19.—Forty coast artillerymen and a machine gun from Fort Monroe have been stationed at the shipping pier to guard the Kronprinz Wilhelm.

Unconfirmed rumors have it that a plot to dynamite the German sea raiders have been hatched by enemies. A naval tug patrols the river near the cruiser.

The German cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm now occupies the Shipyard pier formerly occupied by the Eitel Friedrich.

Capable of making twenty-seven knots an hour under forced draught, the Wilhelm, many believe, will attempt to regain the open sea, and resume her commerce scourging. She can easily outrun the English cruisers waiting off the capes for her.

ITALIAN EDITOR BEATEN.

New York, April 19—Egged on by two girls who acted as lookouts, five men beat Attilo Frittbbe, editor of an Italian newspaper, so badly that he was taken to a hospital, suffering from a fractured skull and numerous contusions'. The cause for the attack is a mystery, and the editor says he never saw his assailants before.

MAY REVOLUTIONIZE MUSIC.

Frenchman Finds How to Sustain Sounds from Stringed Instrument

Paris April 19—A revolution in music is foreshadowed by the discovery of a French engineer M. Bevierre, that with the use of amagnet, continuous and sustained sounds, similar to those of an organ, can be produced from stringed instruments such as the piano, violin, harp and guitar, without a trace of hammering, scraping or jerkiness. The discovery is expected to affect not only the execution, but also the composition of music.

EXCITEMENT IN ITALY

Skirmish With Austrians Likely to Precipitate More Serious Trouble

Paris, April 19—The attack of Austrian troops upon the Italian forces on the frontier Saturday, which was repulsed by the Italians, who invaded Austria in the pursuit has stirred Italy to the war point, dispatches received here from Rome state. According to the reports the Austrians fired apparently without justification.

Details are meager simply confirming the fight.

It is again stated from an authoritative source that the German efforts to bring about an accord between Austria and Italy have failed, a report, which if confirmed, is likely to magnify in the the eyes of the Italians the frontier incident.

Many reports have been current respecting the territorial proposals said to have been made by influential Austrians anxious to preserve peace with Italy, for the temporary disposition of the province of Trent, provided Austria consented to cede it to Italy.

The latest proposal, according to these reports was that the territory be ceded to the Pope and that the pontiff turn the territory over to Italy after the war.

Prince Von Buelow, the German ambassador at Rome, is said to have frowned upon this suggestion because he feared that it would be a new source of friction between Austria and Italy, something which he had been striving to eliminate.

Earlier suggestions regarding the disposition of Trent were that it be ceded to Germany to hold until the end of the war, or that it be occupied until that time by Switzerland, with the agreement in either case that the territory should eventually become Italian.

BRIGANDS IN SMYRNA

Travelers From Asia Minor Bring Word of Terrible Conditions.

Syracuse, Sicily, April 19.—Travelers arriving here from Asia Minor say that the situation in Smyrna is terrible. They state that bands of Mussulman brigands are committing all kinds of outrages, killing and taking hostages, pillaging and burning property.

The people bringing this report state that the Europeans in Smyrna urgently ask the assistance of the United States cruiser Tennessee, now in Eastern waters, or any other force or influence which America can exercise.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pare are dead and their 14 year old daughter Marie is suffering from frightful injuries as the result of an automobile accident Saturday at midnight at Kalamazoo Mich. Frank Barril, 48 years old who was in the car, is also badly hurt

UNREST IN AUSTRIA

Verona, Italy, April 19—Travelers from the interior of Austria bring reports of increasing unrest resulting from the insufficiency of the bread allowance which although it has been increased still is considered inadequate.

Demonstrations against the war are said to be increasing in number and violence especially in Vienna and at points in Bohemia, where mobs are reported to have sacked storehouses in which were stocks of provisions for the army.

In Trent Tuesday crowds of women from the surrounding villages held a demonstration in front of the town hall, and later in the evening the townpeople joined in the demonstration demand—bread or peace. The burgomaster intervened and promised to increase the daily allowance of bread from 240 to 300 grammes.

The outbreak was resumed Friday when a mob attacked the military storehouse, and stoned the police several of whom were injured. It is said that a seige probably will be proclaimed in Trent.

At Leitmeritz Bohemia a mob is said to have destroyed 100 wagon loads of flour destined for the military.

DEATH OF COL. ANDREWS.

First Vice-President of Southern Railway, Passes Away in Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—Colonel A. B. Andrews, first vice-president of the Southern Railway, died here Saturday night after a brief illness, at the age of 74 years.

Colonel Andrews was born in Franklin county, N. C., July 23, 1841, and received only a common school education. He entered the Confederate army as second lieutenant in the First North Carolina Cavalry, was wounded twice, and was captain at the close of the war. After the war he engaged in railroad work, and in 1869 was superintendent of the Raleigh and Gaston Railway, which afterwards was converted into a part of the Seaboard. He occupied official positions with a number of railroads in this State and Georgia, in 1892 going to the Richmond and Danville Railroad as third vice president, later becoming second vice president, and finally general agent of the receivers. When the road became the Southern. His greatest constructive vice-president, and had held that position since, being president of a number of smaller roads belonging to the Southern. His greatest constructive work in North Carolina was the building of the Western North Carolina Railroad about 1878. It is estimated that his estate will be about $500,000.

VERY IMPORTANT

The work of taking the School Census of Alexandria Commences Today.

On the number of persons of School age in the city depends the amount of money that the city will receive for the next five years. Every name added to the list will help to improve the efficiency of our Schools . Upon our school facilities depend the future of our community. It is there fore incumbent upon every person in Alexandria to see that not a name is overlooked. Remember that the census should include every person, white or colored, between the ages of 7 and 20 years, whetheror not they are attending school. If they are temporarily out of the city or are attending school in some other place their names should be included

Parents, Business Men, Citizens, see that your own Children are listed and that those of your employees and servants are included.

The census takers are Thomas L. Hall and Thomas Chauncey
